International & English Language Programs at the University of Washington

Located in the Beautiful Pacific Northwest

www.ielp.uw.edu
Founded in 1861, the University of Washington is one of the oldest public institutions of higher education on the West Coast and one of the preeminent research universities in the world. More than 42,000 undergraduate, graduate and professional students attend the Seattle, Bothell and Tacoma campuses combined.

Welcome to UW International & English Language Programs

I’d like to welcome you to the International & English Language Programs (IELP) at the University of Washington. Since 1979, we have been offering open enrollment and customized group programs to students from around the world. Today we serve nearly 4,000 international students per year at our main campus, downtown Seattle and Bothell locations. We feature highly qualified instructors who are experienced English language professionals, and we offer small classes and a variety of programs to meet your needs. Whether you want to improve your English for academic life in the United States, get a business or teaching certificate, earn credits at the UW toward a degree at your home institution or just learn to communicate more effectively in English, we have a program for you!

Chris Gilman
Senior Director, International & English Language Programs
Table of Contents

ACADEMIC PREPARATION
- Campus Intensive English Program (CIEP) ................................................................. 2
- Conditional Admission .................................................................................................. 4
- Accelerated Intensive English Program (A-IEP) ............................................................. 5
- Summer Institute for Academic Success (SIAS) ............................................................ 6
- Advanced Academic Preparation Skills (AAPS) ........................................................... 7
- Undergraduate Preparation Program (UPP) ................................................................. 8

BUSINESS CERTIFICATES
- Intensive Business English Program (IBEP) ..................................................................... 10
- Business for International Professionals (BUSIP) .......................................................... 11
- Fundamentals of Project Management (FPM) ............................................................... 12
- Marketing for International Professionals (MIP) ............................................................ 13

LANGUAGE & CULTURE
- Downtown Intensive English Program (DIEP) .............................................................. 14
- Business Short Term English Program (STEP) ............................................................... 15
- Language & Culture Short Term English Program (STEP) ............................................. 16
- Orientation to Academic Skills Short Term English Program (STEP) ......................... 17

PROGRAM FOR TEACHERS
- International Teaching English as a Foreign Language (I-TEFL) Certificate ................. 18

STUDY ABROAD AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON
- International Studies Academic Year Abroad (ISAYA) Institute ................................. 19

GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAM
- Master of Arts in Applied International Studies (MAAIS) ........................................... 20

CUSTOMIZED GROUP PROGRAMS

GENERAL INFORMATION
ACADEMIC PREPARATION

Campus Intensive English Program (CIEP)

Come study in a beautiful region of the United States and improve your English language skills with the Campus Intensive English Program (CIEP) at the University of Washington. Our high-quality instructional program will help prepare you for studies at an American college or university and assist you in reaching your personal or career goals.

The CIEP, founded in 1977, is one of the largest English language programs in the United States, with about 450 students attending each quarter. Students from all over the world enjoy our scenic campus in one of the cleanest, most attractive cities in the country.

Enroll in this program and you will:
- Improve your speaking, listening, reading and writing skills
- Learn how to raise your TOEFL or IELTS scores
- Increase your readiness for American university study

Once you begin the CIEP, you can also apply for conditional admission to UW Bothell, UW Tacoma, Washington State University and other colleges in the Pacific Northwest.

Who Should Apply

The CIEP is designed for beginning to advanced students of English who want to improve their English skills for their education or career.

This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:
- Be at least 18 years of age or have completed high school
- Have a basic knowledge of English. You should be able to spell basic vocabulary words in English, introduce yourself and understand classroom instructions, and write simple sentences using the verb “to be.”

New students will take a placement test. This test will place you into a level ranging from 1 (beginning) to 5 (advanced). If your score is lower than Level 1, you cannot study in the CIEP.
Courses

The CIEP has a Lower Division and Upper Division. The Lower Division is for beginning to intermediate students (Levels 1–4). The Upper Division is for advanced students (Level 5). Students must successfully complete the core courses in the Lower Division or score well enough on the placement test to qualify for Level 5 to take Upper Division courses.

LOWER DIVISION

CORE COURSES
- Grammar & Writing 1, 2, 3
- Reading 1, 2, 3
- Listening & Speaking 1, 2, 3, 4

ACADEMIC PREPARATION COURSES
- Academic Reading & Writing 4
- Reading Skills 4

ELECTIVE COURSES: LEVELS 3 & 4
- Grammar 4
- Intermediate Conversation
- Vocabulary & Idioms

COMMUNICATION COURSES
- Multigenre Reading 4
- Multigenre Writing 4

UPPER DIVISION

ACADEMIC PREPARATION COURSES
- Academic Listening & Speaking 5
- Academic Listening & Writing 5
- Academic Reading & Speaking 5
- Academic Reading & Writing 5
- Applied Academic Skills

COMMUNICATION COURSES
- Advanced Conversation
- Advanced Vocabulary & Idioms
- Business English
- Grammar 5
- Independent Writing
- Listening & Speaking 5
- Multigenre Reading & Writing 5
- News

OTHER ELECTIVE COURSES
- American Culture Through Film
- American Culture Through Music
- American Culture Through Sports
- Evening Advanced Conversation

In Seattle everything is special. You will not feel that you are far from your family there. The people are friendly and the weather is amazing. The CIEP is a very helpful program. At the beginning of my first class I was shy to speak at all, but I found great teachers who were encouraging.

— Mashael, Saudi Arabia
Conditional Admission

While studying in the Campus Intensive English Program (CIEP), you may apply for conditional admission to select universities in Washington state. Our academic advisor will help you with the application process.

If you meet the university core admission requirements, you may be granted conditional admission without submitting a TOEFL, IELTS or other standardized test score. Then, once you complete the CIEP academic English requirements, you may begin your undergraduate studies.

University of Washington Bothell

UW Bothell, founded in 1990, boasts a 128-acre campus with more than 2,200 students. UW Bothell offers 24 undergraduate programs and 10 post-baccalaureate and graduate areas of study.

University of Washington Tacoma

UW Tacoma was also founded in 1990 and has about 2,900 students in eight academic programs. The school’s 46-acre campus is located on the southern edge of downtown Tacoma.

Central Washington University

Central Washington University’s main campus is located in Ellensburg, Washington, two hours east of Seattle. CWU has an enrollment of more than 10,000 and has four colleges, which offer more than 150 different majors and 38 graduate programs across 24 departments.

Washington State University

Washington’s original land-grant university, Washington State University, was founded in 1890 in Pullman, Washington. WSU has more than 26,000 undergraduate, graduate and professional students and offers 90 majors for undergraduates, 67 master’s degree programs, 46 doctoral degree programs and two professional degree programs.
Accelerated Intensive English Program (A-IEP)

Finish your UW English proficiency requirement in two academic quarters — instead of three — on the UW Bothell campus with the Accelerated Intensive English Program (A-IEP).

A-IEP is a highly concentrated two-quarter English program offered jointly by the University of Washington Bothell and UW International & English Language Programs. All classes are held on the UW Bothell campus, which is located about 20 minutes north of the main Seattle campus. Classes meet for 4–5 hours per day, Monday through Friday.

Who Should Apply

The A-IEP is for advanced students of English who intend to enroll at the UW Bothell and who want an accelerated English program.

This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To be eligible for UW A-IEP Level 4, applicants must meet one of the following minimum language requirements to prove their level of English proficiency:

- TOEFL iBT - 65 (16*)
- IELTS - 5.5 (5.0*)
- Successful completion of CIEP Level 3 at UW Seattle with a combined grade of 80% (3.0) or higher

To be eligible for UW A-IEP Level 5, applicants must have one of the following to prove their level of English proficiency:

- TOEFL iBT - 76 (18*)
- IELTS - 6 (5.5*)
- Successful completion of CIEP Level 4 at UW Seattle with a combined grade of 80% (3.0) or higher

*No subscore can be below this number
Get ready to study in the United States and increase your awareness of U.S. academic culture and expectations with the Summer Institute for Academic Success (SIAS) at the University of Washington. This four-week program focuses on preparing you for the challenge of undergraduate studies at an American college or university.

Enroll in this program and you will:

• Develop the English language and presentation skills needed for top academic performance
• Increase your awareness of U.S. academic culture and expectations

Who Should Apply

SIAS is designed for intermediate and advanced non-native English speakers who are preparing for undergraduate study at an American college or university. Students from all fields of study are encouraged to apply.

This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must have:

• An acceptance letter from a U.S. college or university
• One of the following minimum test scores:
  • TOEFL iBT - 76
  • IELTS - 6.0
  • PTE - 50
Advanced Academic Preparation Skills (AAPS)

Join us during summer quarter for Advanced Academic Preparation Skills (AAPS), a special four-week program designed to help you meet the challenges of studying in U.S. graduate programs in a wide variety of fields.

Enroll in this program and you will:
- Develop the advanced English language and presentation skills needed for top academic performance
- Increase your awareness of U.S. academic culture and expectations

Who Should Apply

AAPS is designed for high-intermediate and advanced non-native English speakers who are preparing for graduate study at an American college or university. Students from all fields of study are encouraged to apply.

This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must have:
- An acceptance letter from a graduate program at a U.S. college or university in any field
- One of the following minimum test scores:
  - TOEFL iBT - 84 (17*)
  - IELTS - 6.5 (5.5*)
  - PTE - 55 (45*)

*No subscore can be below this number

Quick Facts

Location: UW Seattle campus
Length: 4 weeks
Hours/Week: 25
Program Dates: Summer 2014: Aug 4–28

This program taught me how to do research, how to make presentations and, since I’m an international student, introduced me to the American academic culture.

— Omar Mohsin, Iraq
Undergraduate Preparation Program (UPP)

If you are an international student looking to earn an undergraduate degree at an American college or university, the Undergraduate Preparation Program (UPP) at the University of Washington could be a great option for you. This four-quarter program will get you ready for college in the United States.

UPP will help you improve your English language skills and study skills while you earn academic credit. You’ll also receive valuable assistance with the college application process.

Enroll in this program and you will:

- Improve your academic English language abilities
- Build confidence in your study skills and habits
- Earn college credits
- Prepare to apply for admission to an American college or university

Who Should Apply

UPP is designed for high-intermediate and advanced non-native English speakers who want to pursue undergraduate studies in the United States. This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:

- Be at least 18 years old and have completed high school
- Meet one of the following minimum language requirements:
  - TOEFL iBT - 72 (17*)
  - IELTS - 6.0 (5.5*)
  - Completion of Level 4 academic English courses and one elective course in the UW Campus Intensive English Program (CIEP) with a grade of 80% (3.0) or higher in each course

*No subscore can be below this number
If you are an international professional or international student interested in learning more about business concepts and skills, the University of Washington offers a variety of programs for you. International & English Language Programs features a number of certificate programs that combine the study of business principles and practices with expert English language instruction.

Each of these programs consists of an intensive 10-week session during which you will attend class most weekdays. All classes are held at the UW’s downtown Seattle location.

Note: If you also want to take an English skills course, you should do so before beginning one of our business certificate programs.

The chart below shows a possible sequence of international business programs that many students find helpful, depending on their individual level of English proficiency. After completing one or more of our international business certificate programs, students may also choose to take the optional Business English Internship Course (BEIC), which places them in an American workplace.
Intensive Business English Program (IBEP)

Improve your business English by studying in Seattle’s commercial core with the Intensive Business English Program (IBEP). This certificate program, held at the downtown Seattle location of the University of Washington, will teach you the language of business and help you be more successful in your career.

Enroll in this program and you will:

• Improve your fluency and pronunciation in business situations — social interactions, transactions and negotiations, meetings, telephone conversations and presentations
• Learn about business terminology and the American business environment
• Develop your written business communication skills (letters, reports, emails)

IBEP is part of the UW’s international business certificate sequence, and many students take it before moving on to more advanced certificate courses such as Business for International Professionals (BUSIP), Fundamentals of Project Management (FPM) or Marketing for International Professionals (MIP).

Who Should Apply

This program is designed for people who need English language skills for their jobs or need better language skills to interact in an English-speaking community. You do not need a business background to participate in this program, but you must meet certain English proficiency requirements.

This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:

• Be at least 18 years old and have completed high school
• Meet one of the following minimum language requirements:
  • TOEFL iBT - 65 (15*)
  • IELTS - 5.5 (5.0*)
  • PTE - 45 (40*)
  • TOEIC - 650
  • EIKEN - 2A
  • A.C.E. Language Institute - Level 5
  • Completion of Campus Intensive English Program (CIEP) Level 4
  • Completion of Downtown Intensive English Program (DIEP) advanced level with teacher’s recommendation

*No subscore can be below this number
Business for International Professionals (BUSIP)

Learn about international business from the professionals. Develop your international business abilities while improving your business English in the Business for International Professionals (BUSIP) certificate program at the University of Washington.

Taught by UW Foster School of Business lecturers and leading international business professionals, this certificate program will help you:

• Gain a better understanding of international trade, marketing, law and finance
• Learn strategic marketing techniques to increase your competitive edge
• Strengthen your teamwork and negotiation skills
• Build your business vocabulary and intercultural communication skills

BUSIP was designed with the help of select industry leaders who have extensive international business experience.

Students who successfully complete the program receive a UW Certificate in Business for International Professionals. They are also eligible for the Business English Internship Course (BEIC), which gives students practical experience working in an American company.

Who Should Apply

BUSIP is for international business professionals or international students seeking expertise in global business. You should possess an advanced level of English proficiency. This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:

• Be at least 18 years old and have completed high school
• Meet one of the following minimum language requirements:
  • TOEFL iBT - 76 (17*)
  • IELTS - 6.0 (5.5*)
  • PTE - 51 (45*)
  • TOEIC - 750 (LR)
  • EIKEN - Pre-1
  • A.C.E. Language Institute - Level 5
  • Completion of the UW Intensive Business English Program (IBEP) and a TOEIC score of 730 or higher
  • Completion of the Fundamentals of Project Management (FPM) or Marketing for International Professionals (MIP) with a final GPA of 3.0 or higher

*No subscore can be below this number
Fundamentals of Project Management (FPM)

Learn the project management techniques of American business professionals while you improve your English in the Fundamentals of Project Management (FPM) certificate program at the University of Washington.

Taught by experienced business instructors and English language teachers, this program will allow you to:

• Understand the core principles of project management and the role of the project manager
• Learn to plan, lead and deliver final projects on time and within budget
• Improve your business English skills

The FPM certificate program was designed with the help of select industry professionals who have deep expertise in the field.

Students who successfully complete the program receive a UW Certificate in Fundamentals of Project Management. They are also eligible for the Business English Internship Course (BEIC), which gives students practical experience working in an American company.

Who Should Apply

FPM is designed for international business professionals or international students seeking to gain project management skills and experience. You should possess an advanced level of English proficiency.

This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:

• Be at least 18 years old and have completed high school
• Meet one of the following minimum language requirements:
  • TOEFL iBT - 76 (17*)
  • IELTS - 6.0 (5.5*)
  • PTE - 51 (45*)
  • TOEIC - 750 (LR)
  • EIKEN - Pre-1
  • A.C.E. Language Institute - Level 5
  • Completion of the UW Intensive Business English Program (IBEP) and a TOEIC score of 730 or higher
  • Completion of the Business for International Professionals (BUSIP) or Marketing for International Professionals (MIP) certificate program with a final GPA of 3.0 or higher

*No subscore can be below this number
Marketing for International Professionals (MIP)

Study basic marketing concepts and international marketing trends and techniques while you improve your English in the Marketing for International Professionals (MIP) certificate program at the University of Washington.

Taught by experienced marketing instructors and English language teachers, this intensive program will allow you to:

- Understand digital marketing and content marketing
- Learn about globalization and localization
- Know how to integrate online marketing with traditional marketing methods
- Improve your ability to use English in international marketing

The MIP certificate program was designed with the help of select professionals who have deep expertise in the field.

Students who successfully complete the program receive a UW Certificate in Marketing for International Professionals. They are also eligible for the Business English Internship Course (BEIC), which gives students practical experience working in an American company.

Who Should Apply

This program is for international business professionals or international students seeking expertise in international marketing. You should possess an advanced level of English proficiency.

This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:

- Be at least 18 years old and have completed high school
- Meet one of the following minimum language requirements:
  - TOEFL iBT - 76 (17*)
  - IELTS - 6.0 (5.5*)
  - PTE - 51 (45*)
  - TOEIC - 750 (LR)
  - EIKEN - Pre-1
  - A.C.E. Language Institute - Level 5
  - Completion of the UW Intensive Business English Program (IBEP) and a TOEIC score of 730 or higher
  - Completion of the Fundamentals of Project Management or Business for International Professionals certificate program with a final GPA of 3.0 or higher

*No subscore can be below this number

Quick Facts

Location:
UW downtown Seattle

Length: 10 weeks
(9 weeks in summer)

Hours/Week: 20

Program Dates:
Summer 2014:
Jun 23 – Aug 20
Winter 2015:
Jan 5 – Mar 12
Downtown Intensive English Program (DIEP)

Study English in the heart of Seattle! Quickly improve your practical English skills while enjoying the attractions of the city center in the Downtown Intensive English Program (DIEP).

Enroll in this program and you will:

• Develop your English reading, writing, listening and speaking skills
• Improve your pronunciation, grammar and vocabulary
• Become more confident using your English in real-life situations
• Learn more about a particular topic in American culture

Who Should Apply

The program is designed for beginning to advanced non-native English speakers who want to improve their practical English skills for work or school.

This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:

• Be at least 18 years of age or have completed high school
• Have a basic knowledge of English. You should be able to spell basic vocabulary words in English, be able to introduce yourself and understand classroom instructions, and know how to write simple sentences using the verb “to be.”
Business Short Term English Program (STEP)

Come practice your English and learn about American business! In the Business Short Term English Program (STEP) at the University of Washington, you’ll study important business skills and have opportunities to interact with local businesses as well as do research on your own areas of interest.

Enroll in this program and you will:

• Improve your business-related conversation and presentation skills as well as your listening skills
• Practice your business skills in real-life situations
• Learn American-style business practices and cultural expectations for international business
• Interact with other students and professionals from all over the world

Who Should Register

Business STEP is open to intermediate to advanced students of business and English. Students enrolling in Business STEP are expected to have a higher-than-average English skill level.

STEP students are not eligible for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:

• Be at least 18 years old and have completed high school
• Have a minimum TOEFL iBT score of 65

Quick Facts

Location:
UW Seattle Campus

Length: 3 weeks

Hours/Week: 15

Program Dates:
Summer 2014:
Jun 30 – Jul 18, 2014
Language & Culture Short Term English Program (STEP)

Come practice your English and learn about American culture! In the Language & Culture Short Term English Program (STEP) at the University of Washington, you’ll study English in the mornings and enjoy guided activities to see the beautiful sights of Seattle two afternoons each week.

Enroll in this program and you will:

- Improve your English vocabulary as well as your listening, speaking and presentation skills
- Practice your English in real-life situations
- Learn American expressions and idioms
- Interact with students from all over the world

Who Should Register

Language & Culture STEP is open to beginning to advanced students of English. Beginners must have a basic knowledge of English. STEP students are not eligible for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:

- Be at least 18 years old and have completed high school
- Have a basic knowledge of English. This means you should be able to spell basic vocabulary words in English, be able to introduce yourself and understand classroom instructions, and know how to write simple sentences using the verb “to be.”
Orientation to Academic Skills Short Term English Program (STEP)

Orientation to Academic Skills Short Term English Program (STEP) is a three-week program designed to expose you to college-level study skills and practices. Orientation to Academic Skills STEP is offered during Session 4 of the Short Term English Program (STEP).

In the classroom, you will practice English and learn about American academic expectations as you prepare for the challenges of your university program.

Enroll in this program and you will:
- Improve your speaking and listening skills
- Develop vocabulary-building tools and reading strategies
- Practice your academic writing
- Increase your knowledge of American education policies and expectations
- Interact with students from all over the world*

*Recent STEP sessions have included students from Austria, Brazil, Burma, Canada, China, Colombia, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Israel, Italy, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Spain, Switzerland, Taiwan, Thailand and the Ukraine.

Outside of class, you will have the opportunity to explore the campus area on field trips with your classmates and other UW students.

Who Should Apply

Students joining Orientation to Academic Skills STEP are expected to have a higher-than-average English language skill level. Students who do not have high enough test scores or proof of equivalency should register for the Language & Culture STEP.

STEP students are not eligible for an F-1 student visa.

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:
- Be at least 18 years old and have completed high school
- Have a minimum TOEFL iBT score of 61

---

"STEP was unforgettable; everybody was very nice! It was awesome to discover people from different parts of the world! It’s a good idea to have class only the morning, so you can enjoy Seattle with your friends the afternoon!"

— Florent Geelhand de Merxem, Belgium
International Teaching English as a Foreign Language (I-TEFL) Certificate

Prepare to teach English as a foreign language. Deepen your understanding of language acquisition theory, explore the latest research on teaching methods and learn to manage and organize your classroom and your classroom activities. You will gain the skills and knowledge needed to confidently teach English as a foreign language.

Who Should Apply

This program is for current English language teachers from any country or for native and non-native English speakers who want to teach English as a foreign language at home or abroad.

This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Program Features

- Completion of a practical portfolio of language teaching activities
- Workshops with expert UW English language instructors and guest lecturers
- Class observations and facilitation exercises in UW ESL classes
- Satisfaction of an elective requirement for the UW MATESOL degree

Admission Requirements

To apply for this program, you must:

- Be at least 18 years old and have completed high school
- Meet one of the following minimum language requirements:
  - TOEFL iBT 84 (17*)
  - IELTS 6.5 (5.5*)
  - PTE 55 (45*)

*No subscore can be below this number

Quick Facts

Location: UW Seattle campus
Length: 4 weeks
Hours/Week: 30
Program Dates: Jul 24 – Aug 22
International Studies Academic Year Abroad (ISAYA) Institute

The University of Washington’s Jackson School of International Studies and International & English Language Programs have partnered to create the International Studies Academic Year Abroad (ISAYA) Institute. This program offers international students a high-quality academic study abroad experience, with a focus on international economies and global sustainability. ISAYA prepares tomorrow’s leaders with the knowledge of global issues that they need today.

ISAYA students take a personalized mix of international studies and English language courses. Students will be placed in either the Cascade Division (advanced English proficiency) or the Olympic Division (intermediate English proficiency), based on their test scores.

Who Should Apply

This program is open to undergraduate students who have been enrolled for a minimum of one year at a university outside of the United States. Applicants must be in good academic standing at their home university, have intermediate or advanced English language proficiency levels and be interested in international affairs. This program meets the requirements for an F-1 student visa.

Program Features

- 2-quarter and 3-quarter program options
- Opportunity to earn UW academic credit
- Classes appropriate to your English skill level
- Experienced Jackson School and IELP faculty and instructors

Admission Requirements

To enroll in this program, you must:

- Have been enrolled for a minimum of one year at a university outside of the United States and be in good academic standing at your home university
- Meet one of the following minimum test scores:

  Olympic Division
  - TOEFL iBT 65 (15*)
  - TOEIC (L&R) 650 (320*)
  - TOEIC (S&W) 260 (130*)
  - IELTS 5.5 (5.0*)
  - PTE 45

  Cascade Division
  - TOEFL iBT 76 (17*)
  - TOEIC (L&R) 700 (340*)
  - TOEIC (S&W) 320 (160*)
  - IELTS 6.0 (5.5*)
  - PTE 45

*No subscore can be below this number
Master of Arts in Applied International Studies (MAAIS)
Offered by the UW Jackson School of International Studies, the Master of Arts in Applied International Studies is an intensive new graduate degree program designed for professionals seeking to accelerate their careers by gaining a deeper understanding of the world and the foreign affairs arena.
• Earn your graduate degree in 10 months
• Study with world-class Jackson School faculty drawn from a diverse range of disciplines
• Learn together with a dynamic cohort of international professionals
• Engage with leading Seattle-based business and philanthropic leaders

Who Should Apply
The MAAIS program is intended for U.S. and international applicants who hold a bachelor’s degree and have at least five years of experience in fields across the international affairs spectrum, such as business, government, military and philanthropy.

CUSTOMIZED GROUP PROGRAMS

Customized Group Programs
The staff of International Specialized Programs at the University of Washington works closely with universities, corporations, non-government organizations and government agencies from around the world to develop specialized English language educational programs. These academic and professional group programs can be focused on specific content themes as well as English language skills. Programs can range in length from one week to nine months or more and can take place on the UW campus or on-site at your own location. Our programs include these three compelling advantages:
• As a top-tier research institution, the University of Washington offers academic prestige, vast resources and a highly qualified teaching staff.
• Our English language program is one of the top rated in the United States and is among the charter programs accredited by the Commission on English Language Program Accreditation.
• The UW campus is located in the heart of Seattle, a cosmopolitan city known as a center of research and development for technology, business, education, health care and the environment.

We encourage you to bring us your innovative ideas and educational challenges. We enjoy developing programs that meet specialized requirements for unique subject areas and audiences.
ADMISSIONS
For all of our programs, applicants must be at least 18 years old and/or have completed high school. Some programs require standardized test scores as proof of English language proficiency. For individual program requirements, please visit our website. Our programs fill up quickly, so we advise you to apply early. Applications are processed on a first-come, first-served basis. Please note: Admission to our programs does not constitute admission to the University of Washington.

VISAS
Once you have been accepted into a program, we will provide you with a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20). Most of our programs require an F-1 student visa. For questions about F-1 student visas, please contact our Student Services and Immigration advisors at aid@pce.uw.edu or 206-543-6242.

TUITION & FEES
In addition to classroom instruction, tuition and fees include most student services normally available to nonmatriculated students, such as academic counseling and use of some campus facilities. Welcome and graduation receptions and memory tokens of the program are also included in the fees. The registration fee is nonrefundable, and tuition and fees are subject to change.

INSURANCE
All full-time students are required to have medical insurance. We offer a medical insurance package for those who do not bring coverage from their home country. See the Health Insurance & Immunizations page of the Admissions & Visas section of our website for details.

HOUSING OPTIONS
Students are responsible for making their own housing arrangements. They can stay in UW residence halls (except during autumn quarter); in homestays with local host families; in shared housing; or in private apartments. See the Housing section of our website for more information.
International & English Language Programs
University of Washington
Box 359450
Seattle, WA 98195-9450
U.S.A.
Phone: 206-543-6242
Fax: 206-685-9572
www.ielp.uw.edu